

Miss Mary K. Ballard Weds George Andrew Anderson

The marriage of Miss Mary Katharine Ballard to George Andrew Anderson was performed in the Glen Jean Union Church yesterday at 12:30 o'clock by the Rev. W. W. Pharr, pastor of the Mount Hope Presbyterian Church.

The bride wore a white pique dress trimmed with Irish lace and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and white roses. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Fletcher Arritt, as matron-of-honor, who wore a pink silk dress with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of pink and white sweet peas and roses.

The groom was attended by Fletcher Arritt, of Fayetteville, as best man.

Mrs. Anderson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rilley Ballard, of Fayetteville, is a graduate of Mount Hope High School and of West Virginia University, where she was a member of the Alpha Xi Delta sorority. She was graduated from the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, Illinois, last summer, and was the class speaker in the Oak Hill High School and during the graduation exercises. She is now employed as a teacher and plans to complete this school year.

Mr. Anderson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Sydney Anderson, of Farmville, Virginia, is a graduate of Randolph High School in Farmville, and also graduated from Hampden-Sydney College, located in Hampden-Sydney, Virginia. He is a graduate of Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, Illinois, and is attending the Columbia Seminary, in Decatur, Georgia.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding reception was held in the home of the bride's parents in Fayetteville, for the members of the wedding party, relatives, and intimate friends. After the reception the bridal couple left for a honeymoon trip through the southern states. Mrs. Anderson plans to return here next week end and Mr. Anderson will resume his studies in Columbia.
